CRITERIA

Eligibility for this scheme is determined through a home visit and a financial assessment carried out by an Assessment Officer. Evidence of all income is required for every household member.

You must provide three months' bank statements for all banking and savings accounts held by you and any members of your household, and all pages of each statement must be included for your submission to be accepted.

If any income is not shown on these statements, you must provide an official statement. Acceptable supporting documents include but not limited to:

- Pension statements / payslips
- Benefit statements

WHAT WE WILL FUND

- Clients who have an income less than £13,755.05* per annum

*We will consider applications where a client and their spouse's total income is less than £27,510.10 per annum

WHAT WE WILL NOT FUND

- Clients who have an income more than £13,755.05 per annum

PROCESS

- Client completes and submits application form with required evidence.
- A financial assessment will be carried out. If approved, a letter of offer will be sent to the client which explains the terms and conditions in full.
- The letter of offer needs to be signed and returned to NIPF before the agreed amount will be paid directly into the client's account.

WHAT TO REMEMBER

- Only one application can be granted in a 12 month period.
- The application window is open from 1st of June 2026 until 7th March 2027.
- Approval is subject to the discretion of the Fund.

PRIVACY NOTICE

The Northern Ireland Police Fund Regulation 2016 established The Northern Ireland Police Fund (the Fund) as a body corporate for the purpose of providing financial assistance, advice, support and care to eligible persons in connection with the objectives in section 11 of the Financial Provisions Act (NI) 2014.

The role of the Fund is to provide care and financial assistance to police officers and ex-officers who have been injured or disabled as a direct result of terrorism, and to the widows, widowers and families of police officers killed or injured through terrorism. This includes PSNI officers who may be killed or injured in the future in this way.

We support our clients through our schemes which are designed to enable them to enjoy a quality of life in their home and make a positive long-term impact on their circumstances.

Requests/Enquires:

We will process your personal information as follows:

- NIPF will process the personal data you provide in order to respond to your enquiry and to fulfil its responsibilities necessary for NIPF to perform public tasks.
- NIPF will process the personal data you provide, and any other relevant information, to investigate, action and resolve your concerns as part of our statutory duties and public tasks.
- NIPF will process your personal data and any other relevant information, including special category personal data, where it is necessary for us to establish, exercise or defend legal claims against the NIPF.
- NIPF may share this data with third parties such as our solicitors, Department of Justice, HM Courts and Tribunals Service (HMCTS), and other legal professionals where it is necessary for the purpose of legal proceedings, obtaining legal advice or otherwise establishing, exercising or defending legal rights, or as required by a rule of law.

Processing of Special Categories of Data:

We process data concerning your health in order to:

- Establish eligibility; and to
- Support our clients through Occupational Medicine.

The Legal Basis for this processing is Art 13 (g) GDPR: Processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, on the basis of Union or Member State law which shall be proportionate to the aim pursued, respect the essence of the right to data protection and provide for suitable and specific measures to safeguard the fundamental rights and the interests of the data subject.

The legal basis for NIPF processing your personal data as above, and NIPF will always meet at least one of the following bases within the UK General Data Protection regulation (UK GDPR) but not limited to:

- The processing is necessary for us to perform our public tasks or a task in the public interest Article 6 (1)(e)
- The processing is necessary to exercise our defend legal claims Article 9 (2)(f)
- The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest Article 9 (2)(g) and Schedule 1, Part 2 of the DPA 2018

How we use your personal information:

- To establish your eligibility as a client of the Fund.
- To process grants for eligible clients of the Fund and the relevant processes involved.
- To keep you informed about new schemes that may be of interest to you or changes to the way we do things.

Where do you get my personal information from?

- We hold information that has been supplied to us from you, our client, via our application forms and the supporting documents that you include at our request as part of your application.
- We also hold reports created by our Occupational Therapists when they visit your home to assist in applications for disability equipment.

How long we will keep your personal information:

- We will hold your personal information for as long as you are a client of the Fund, it will be held for 10 years and then destroyed or deleted in accordance with our retention and disposal schedule.
- If a client dies and they have a surviving spouse, that spouse will then automatically become an eligible client of the Fund for the duration of their natural life. The information for both will be kept together. It will then be destroyed or deleted in accordance with our retention and disposal schedule.
- Personal information about unsuccessful applicants will be held for 12 months, it will then be destroyed or deleted in accordance with our retention and disposal schedule.
- Student bursary applications will be held for 3 years after the end of the last funded academic year. It will then be destroyed or deleted in accordance with our retention and disposal schedule.

Do you share my personal information with anyone else?

- We share information with the RUCGC PSNI Benevolent Fund in relation to making payments to Widows. This is to make sure our information is as up to date and accurate as possible.
- We share information with Danske Bank in order to make payments either electronically, or by cheque.
